Dear Sir or Madam,

The 18th Branchentag Holz is just around the corner! On November 11 and 12, 2025, Cologne will once again become the meeting point for the entire wood industry - and you can be right in the middle of it. Take advantage of this exclusive opportunity to showcase your innovative products and services to a high-profile audience and establish yourself as an exhibitor.

Branchentag Holz offers you much more than just a traditional trade fair: it's the ideal platform to present your company directly to key decision-makers and build valuable business relationships. As a neutral and well-connected industry association, GD Holz specifically targets professionals from the wood trade and the broader industry, ensuring you reach the right contacts and multipliers for your business.

What makes Branchentag Holz so special? It's the perfect blend of trade fair, conference, and premium networking during the dinner party 'Branchenabend'. Two compact days filled with exciting conversations, new business opportunities, and valuable exchanges with the key players in the wood industry - this is an event you won't want to miss!

Secure your spot as an exhibitor now and be part of this unique event that will drive your business forward!

We look forward to welcoming you to the 18th Branchentag Holz in Cologne!
